

CALF SCRAMBLE CONTEST

Rules & Regulations

- 1. To be eligible for the calf scramble, each contestant must have exhibited a livestock project (example Beef, Swine, Sheep, Goats, Horses) at an approved Junior Livestock Show and been a member of 4-H or FFA in good standing in a previous year.
2. The Fulton County Fair Association, or the sponsors, will not be responsible for any accidents connected with this contract.
- 3. Each participant must be a member in good standing of a 4-H club or FFA Chapter and remain so for the following year.
- 4. Each participant must secure an application blank and have it signed by parent or guardian. It must also be signed by the local 4-H leader or FFA advisor that the participant is capable of caring for a calf and has proper facilities for doing so.
- 5. APPLICANTS MUST RETURN APPLICATIONS TO THE FULTON COUNTY FAIR SECRETARY'S OFFICE BY TUESDAY, JULY 26, 2022.
- 6. Contestants must be between 13 and 17 years of age on August 1 of the year the participant is in the contest, and reside in the area served by the Fulton County Fair. No prior Calf Scramble Contest winners are eligible to compete unless otherwise determined by the Fulton County Fair Association prior to the commencement of the contest.
7. Contestants must attend a meeting held prior to the calf scramble. At this time, rules will be explained and any questions will be answered. Halters will be issued at this meeting.
8. Contestants will be furnished a halter with appropriate lead rope. The halter or lead rope cannot be used as a lariat. The halter must be placed over the head in the usual manner, and the calf kept under control until a judge rules the contestant a winner. No other aids will be allowed. Participants are not allowed to grab the tail of the calf at any time.
9. While one contestant has hold of a calf, no other participants will be allowed to touch it. If two or more contestants catch a calf at the same time, the calf will be turned loose.
10. The Calf Scramble Committee will select referees and judges in all cases under protest. The judges' decision will be final.
11. These calves will not be allowed to be sold, traded, or disposed of, except by the consent of the Fair Association. In case of sale or disposition contrary to these rules, the winner, or his parents, will be responsible for the full values thereof to be returned to the Fair Association.
12. The calf must be exhibited at the Fulton County Fair Open Show the following year in any special class, as determined by the Fair Association.
13. All prizes, or prize money, won with this calf will belong to the contestant who wins it.
14. The Fulton County Fair Association reserves the right to take the calf away from any contestant who does not abide by all the rules, and who does not care for the calf in a good husband-like manner.
15. Committees of the Fulton County Fair Association will handle unusual incidents arising affecting continuation of this project.
16. Decisions of the judges will be final. In case of questions, arguments, or unusual incidents, the Fulton County Fair Association will be the final judge.
- 17. The Fulton County Fair Association reserves the right to, and may at any time prior to the commencement of the contest, interpret, amend, alter or repeal any and all rules and regulations associated with said contest without notice to the contestant(s). Any interpretation, amendment, alteration, or repeal of the rules and regulations by the Fulton County Fair Association related to the contest are binding and final, including but not limited to, the cancellation of all or part of the contest.
18. The Fulton County Fair is not responsible for any accident or injury.
